About Larrakia Development Corporation

The LDC was incorporated under ASIC in February 2002. The Board and management of the Corporation are led by members of the Traditional Owner group of Darwin, the Larrakia people.

Today the Corporation is regarded as one of Australia's leading commercial Aboriginal organisations. We provide employment and business opportunities for Larrakia people through our entrepreneurial activities. We achieve this through the development and maintenance of sustainable business models, as Trustee of the Larrakia Development Trust.

The LDC's core activities include Labour Hire, Ground and Building Maintenance, Commercial Cleaning and Land Holdings.

The Corporation is focused on commercial enterprise, the development of the Larrakia Cultural Centre, investing in and building the Company, maintaining the Larrakia Development Trust and capturing employment and business opportunities for Larrakia people.

The LDC continues "working for all Larrakia."
