MEDIA RELEASE

17 December 2021

Congratulations Christine Jenner on becoming Deputy Chair

The LDC Chairman, Mark Motlop would like to announce the elevation of Christine Jenner to the Deputy Chair of the Larrakia Development Corporation (LDC).

Christine has been an active member of the LDC Board since May 2017. Christine has over 30 years' experience in the Public Service she has travelled and worked with many Aboriginal communities and people throughout the Northern Territory during her career. Chrissy holds a number of roles on various advisory groups and boards across the Top End, including a Larrakia representative role on the full council of the NLC.

Christine has brought a strong background in community engagement, Indigenous affairs advisory, program implementation, government, governance, management, public affairs, employment and strategic planning to her role on the LDC Board and now as Deputy Chair.

Chrissy replaces Eddie Cubillo who held the position since 2013. Eddie remains on the LDC Board, and we wish to acknowledge and thank him for his services as Deputy Chair over the last eight years.
